SENIOR MANAGEMENT CHANGE IN CHINA AND KOREA

Following the Wuhan plant opening on February 1st and the launch of Kadjar in China on March 18th, Renault is entering into a new phase of development in China.

As of April 1st, François Provost is appointed SVP, China Operations and becomes a member of the Renault Management Committee. He reports to Gilles Normand, Chairman of Asia Pacific region. His mission will be to deliver the sales and profit objectives that have been set for business expansion in China.

His candidature will also be proposed as President of Dongfeng Renault Automotive Company at the next Board of Directors of DRAC, in replacement of Jacques Daniel.

“I would like to thank Jacques Daniel for his contribution in establishing the joint-venture with Dongfeng, completing the greenfield plant and the Kadjar local production”, said Gilles Normand.

As of April 1st, Donghoon Park is appointed CEO and Representative Director of Renault Samsung Motors replacing François Provost. He will focus on business expansion and market share increase following the successful turnaround over past five years.
